Racial and Religious Hate Crimes Have No Place In Our Community!

*"There is no place for hate in our community.
Every citizen deserves the protection of our laws.
Let us embrace our rich culture and respect our differences."*

Paul Schell, Mayor
City of Seattle

To report hate crimes:

- In an emergency, call 911.
- For non-emergencies, call the Hate Crimes Information and Referral Hotline: 233-1080 (TTY 615-0476)

Racial and religious hate crimes and threats are illegal.

Report a hate crime if you experience:

- ◆ Threats
- ◆ Theft
- ◆ Assault
- ◆ Vandalism
- ◆ Arson
- ◆ Rape
- ◆ Murder

... because of your race, color, religion, ancestry, or national origin.

What to do if it happens to you:

- 1) Protect yourself. Do not respond to taunts.
- 2) Call 911 or 233-1080. Say that you are reporting a Hate Crime.
- 3) Describe the people who committed the crime.
- 4) Make notes about the time, place, and details.
- 5) File a police report.
- 6) Be a witness if someone else is a victim.

The Police Department will investigate
all reports of racial and religious hate crimes.
